It looks like my webmail is finally working correctly... Sorry the letter took a little longer than I expected, but it would be great if you could look it over. I haven't gone over it with a fine-toothed comb or anything yet (I will tomorrow), but I think the format works for all the stuff that needs to fit together in the letter. I'll be at the meeting in Sac the next few days, but I'll check my voicemail/email and put in whatever changes are needed so it will be ready to go out ASAP. Thanks, Eric
